

Guido van der Werve: DVD 2004

Limited edition DVD, 2004

Signed (along with collaborators) cover drawing (along with collaborators) numbered (XX/25)

This one-off edition shows a lighter side to van der Werve as various friends join forces in an Amsterdam flat to create a surreal entertainment consisting of cabaret-style acts (images below).

Indoor gymnastics, dressing up, dance routines and van der Werve's own contributions of a card trick and the 'red wine white wine' performance make for warm, intimate viewing.

All contributors collaborated on the production of unique drawings for the DVD covers (left) and each signed the edition,

An unusual corollary to the artist's better known works, van der Werve also edited the final tape and compiled the soundtrack.
